

The Aether Concept Car's Revolution in Electric Vehicle Design

Aether, a full-scale electric concept car designed by SCAD students, combines intricate parametric design with advanced additive manufacturing to craft its interior and exterior components. Using tools like Rhino 8, Grasshopper, and Multi-Jet Fusion technology, the team created flexible, resilient structures and intricate lattice patterns.